

URANIUM ROYALTY CORP.
(THE "COMPANY")

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY
(April 18, 2023)

INTRODUCTION

Uranium Royalty Corp. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company") is committed to conducting its business in an honest and ethical manner. The purpose of this Anti-Corruption Policy (the "Policy") is to provide guidance to ensure that any and all persons acting on behalf of the Company conduct business in a manner that reflects the highest standards of integrity, in keeping with our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the "Code"). This Policy supplements the Code's anti-corruption provisions and provides further detail relating to anti-corruption policies of the Company.

It is our policy that all business on behalf of the Company be conducted in full compliance with all applicable laws relating to improper payments to public officials or other persons such as contractors, suppliers, or other third parties. These laws include the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (Canada), and all other anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws in any other country that may be applicable to the Company. Depending on the circumstances, this may mean that the Company, and any person transacting business on its behalf, or for its benefit, will have to follow more stringent requirements than required by the local law.

APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all employees, officers and directors ("Personnel") of the Company, including those of its subsidiaries. Compliance with the Policy is mandatory.

At the Company's discretion, any party who performs services for or on behalf of the Company, including but not limited to agents, representatives, suppliers, consultants and joint venture partners (collectively, "Third Parties"), may also be bound by this Policy as a condition of doing business with the Company.

COMMUNICATION OF THE POLICY

Copies of this Policy will be made available by posting of this Policy on the Company's website. All Personnel will be informed, as soon as reasonably practicable, whenever significant changes are made to this Policy. A copy of the current version of this Policy may also be obtained at any time from the Company's General Counsel.

COMPLIANCE

All directors and officers of the Company, together with any employees and Third Parties, as required and as determined by the General Counsel, will be required to annually certify their compliance with this Policy.

This Policy cannot, and is not intended to, address all situations that Personnel and Third Parties may encounter. Such persons are encouraged to consult with the Company's General Counsel, its Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer if confronted with circumstances not covered by this Policy and where they must make a judgement call as to an appropriate course of action.

MANAGEMENT TRAINING

Management of the Company shall develop, implement, monitor and maintain a system of internal controls to facilitate compliance with this Policy, as well as educate and provide training to employees about this Policy.

PREVENTION OF IMPROPER PAYMENTS

As set forth in the Code, employees, officers and directors of the Company are prohibited from giving or offering to give any gift, gratuity, favor, entertainment, reward, "bribe" or "kickback" or any other thing of value that might influence or appear to influence the judgment or conduct of the recipient, including governmental officials, in the performance of his or her job. Accordingly, Personnel and Third Parties to which this Policy may apply shall:

- (a) Bribes: not directly or indirectly, pay, promise or offer to pay a bribe or any financial or other advantage to any person. In particular, it is prohibited to give anything of value to a public official, or to any person on behalf of a public official, in order to receive an advantage in the course of business, or to influence the public official's views or conduct.
 - (i) A "public official" includes an official, employee, representative or any person otherwise acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of a government authority, a candidate for political office, an individual who holds a position in a political party, an official or employee of an international organization, an official or employee of a government-owned or controlled entity, and any other person who discharges a government function.
 - (ii) A mere offer or promise to pay a bribe is also prohibited and will be treated under this Policy with equal severity as an actual bribe.
 - (iii) Bribes may be monetary or non-monetary and may have a large or small value (e.g., facilitation or "grease" payments). All forms of bribes are prohibited.
 - (iv) It is also prohibited to circumvent this Policy by using the services of another person to bribe a public official indirectly, or to pay, offer or promise to pay anything of value to a third party to accomplish the same purpose.
- (b) Kickbacks: not kickback any portion of a contract payment to employees of another contracting party or utilize other techniques, such as subcontracts, purchase orders, commissions or consulting agreements, to channel any payment to any public official, to employees of another contracting party or to any of their respective relatives or business associates.

- (c) Extortion: not directly or indirectly demand or accept a bribe (including a facilitation payment), even if by rejecting such a request, the Company may be consequently threatened with adverse commercial actions. The Company does, however, recognise that in some cases an individual's own physical health and safety could be at risk if they do not respond to such requests. If you find yourself in this situation, you should never put yourself in physical danger but should promptly report the request to the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, General Counsel, or the Chair of the Audit Committee.
- (d) Gifts, Hospitality, and Other Entertainment: not provide gifts, hospitality, or other entertainment to a public official as a quid quo pro (to get something in return) or provide excessive or otherwise unreasonable gifts, hospitality, or other entertainment for a public official that could reasonably raise a concern that the public official might use his or her position or influence with government to provide any improper advantage to the Company, or to influence the public official's views or conduct. All gifts, hospitality and other entertainment expenses shall be subject to the reporting and approval requirements set out in the Code and shall be accurately recorded in the Company's books and records.
- (e) Facilitation Payments: not offer, make, pay or receive any facilitation payment to encourage the recipient (such as a public official) or a third party to perform their existing obligations or role, or expedite a routine task they are otherwise obligated to do even if such payments may be permissible under applicable anti-corruption laws.
- (f) Charitable Contributions: not make any charitable, community or social contributions on behalf of the Company except with the prior written approval of the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer. Documentation substantiating the Company's donation (e.g., receipts) should be maintained in the Company's records.
- (g) Willful Blindness: not deliberately ignore or "turn a blind eye" to facts that may give rise to a suspicion of an improper payment. Any indications that a payment or a proposed payment may be contrary to this Policy or the Code must be promptly reported in the manner set out in this Policy (see "Reporting Obligation" below).

ACCOUNTING

Reflecting the principles in the Code and the requirement of anti-corruption laws, neither the Company nor any Personnel, or Third Parties shall:

- (a) Make transactions that are either not recorded in required books and records or are not adequately identified in those books or records;
- (b) Record or cause false, misleading, incomplete entries or non-existent expenditures in the Company's books, records and other business documents;
- (c) Enter liabilities bearing an incorrect identification of their object;
- (d) Knowingly use false documents;
- (e) Intentionally destroy required books and records earlier than permitted by law;
- (f) Circumvent or evade, or attempt to circumvent or evade, the Company's internal accounting controls.

These requirements apply to all transactions regardless of financial materiality.

REPORTING

- (a) Solicitation of Improper Payments: Any demand, request, suggestion, expectation, or invitation by a public official or any other person for any improper payment of money or anything of value shall be promptly reported by Personnel to their immediate supervisor and to the General Counsel.
- (b) Knowledge or Suspicion of Bribery: All Personnel are required to promptly report to the Company's General Counsel, Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer any conduct that may violate this policy, no matter how seemingly insignificant.

Personnel who in good faith, seeks advice, raises a concern or reports misconduct under this Policy will not be subject to any retribution or disciplinary action.

CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

Failure to comply with this Policy may result in severe consequences, including internal disciplinary action or termination of any employment, consulting or similar arrangement without notice and for cause.

In addition, a violation of this Policy may constitute a criminal offence and may expose the Company and/or the individuals involved to fines and/or imprisonment.

REVIEW

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will review and evaluate this Policy on an annual basis to determine whether this Policy is effective in ensuring compliance with applicable anti-corruption laws.

QUESTIONS

If you have any questions about how this Policy should be followed in a particular case, please contact the General Counsel.

This Policy was reviewed by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and approved by the Board on April 18, 2023.
